

Do not make any changes that will lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law. Since signing up the number of unwanted solicitations on the phone has dropped at least 95%. With the limited amount of time we have together as a family this allows us to enjoy the time we do have without disruptions.